

SACP Stenciling Guide

The below guide is designed to assist terminal operators across the South Atlantic in visually identifying chassis that belong to the South Atlantic Chassis Pool (SACP). A chassis that presents any of the below stencils can be mounted with containers that belong to members of the SACP and should be treated as pool equipment. Presence of any of the below stencil markings supersede any other markings that may exist on a chassis.

